Dr. Ujjwala Tathe made a powerpoint presentation full of animations and relevant pictures. She unravelled the novel so effectively that the theme of the lecture got justified. She elaborately explained how Santiago, the old man and the protagonist of the novel proved his might and mantle challenging his age with tremendous determination. The kind of taunts passed and treatment given to him hurt his self-respect. To regain the lost respect, he undertook the mission in which he caught a Merlin alone. His struggle lasted for three days and nights but at last the fish gave up and the old man won the battle of self-respect.

Pictures in the presentation were so relevant that they simplified the complexities in the theme to make it simple.
