Anti-Ragging Committee 2024-25

Poster Competition Programme Report

As part of the observance of Anti-Ragging Week (August 13–18, 2025), Amdar Shashikant Shinde Mahavidyalay, Medha, organized a Poster Competition on 07 October 2025 to create awareness among college students about anti-ragging laws and regulations and to promote a safe and respectful campus environment.

The programme was inaugurated by Mr. Sudhir Patil, Assistant Police Inspector, Medha Police Station, Medha. In his inaugural address, Mr. Sudhir Patil highlighted the importance of maintaining discipline and mutual respect among students and elaborated on the legal implications of ragging under the Anti-Ragging Act.

Following the inauguration, students actively participated in the competition, presenting creative posters that conveyed strong messages against ragging and emphasized unity, empathy, and zero tolerance toward harassment in educational institutions.

Principal, Major Dr. Ashok Giri, interacted individually with the participants, appreciating their efforts and discussing the ideas expressed through their posters. The event was also graced by the members of the Anti-Ragging Committee, and faculty members from the Science Department.

The programme began with a brief introduction by Mr. Pravin Jadhav (Coordinator, Anti-Ragging Committee), who outlined the objectives of the Anti-Ragging Awareness Week and provided information about various activities conducted to promote awareness among students.

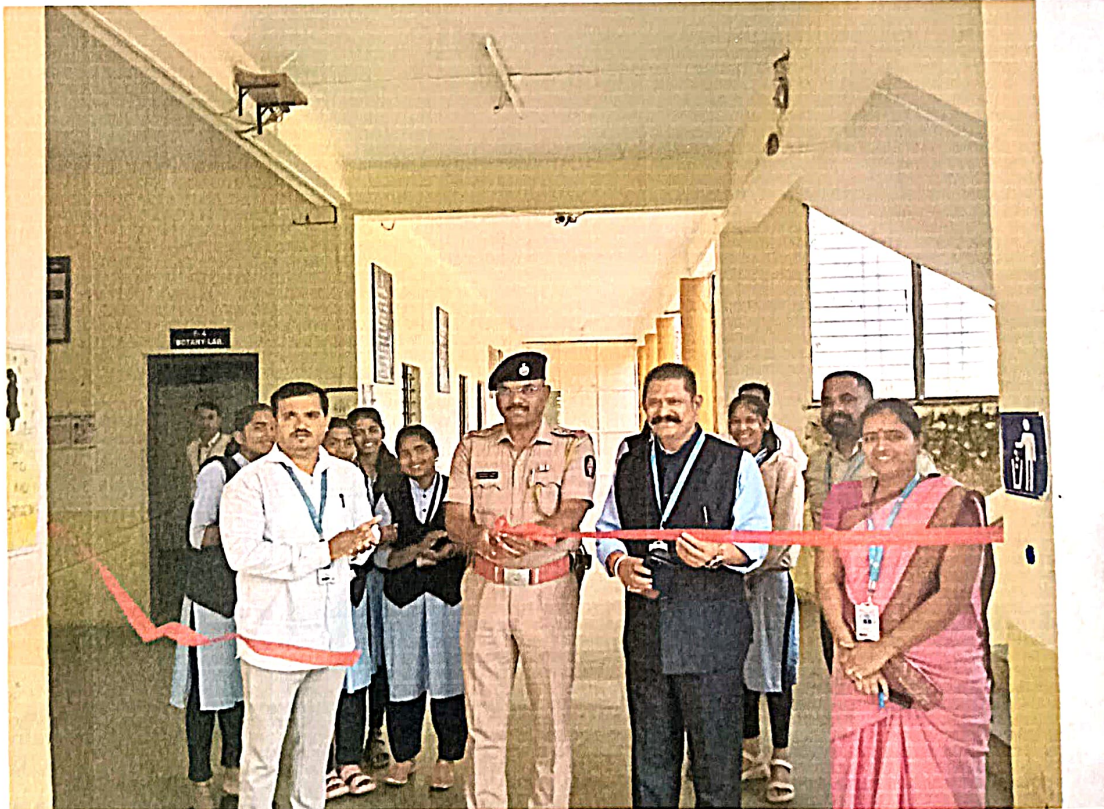

The event concluded with a vote of thanks delivered by Prof. Dhanashree Deshmukh, who expressed gratitude to the chief guest, the Principal, faculty members, and participants for their active involvement and support in making the event a success.
